Dear Miss:

I was led to believe on the night of Dec. 9, 1949 (the night of the WYBC broadcast from Smith) by one of the members of your staff that the station wanted copies of the pictures that I was taking of the broadcast. I sent those pictures to you by special delivery on Dec. 11 along with my bill for $7.00 (seven pictures @ $1.00 per copy-- our standard rates). As yet I have had no reply. I wish you would see to it that either a check for $7.00 is sent me or that the pictures are returned as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,
